Build notes for Shopify

- Template: build on a blank/minimal page template with the theme header and footer hidden for this page specifically — a full nav would let someone wander off the kiosk mid-entry. If the theme can't suppress header/footer per-page, that's a decision point for whoever builds this, not something to guess around here.
- Form: an inline embedded Klaviyo form (not a popup), tied to a new Klaviyo list, "Off-Road Expo Giveaway Entrants" per the campaign brief. Captures Name, Email, Phone (optional). Flag: if the phone field is meant to also opt entrants into SMS, that needs its own explicit consent checkbox/language — don't bundle SMS consent into the phone field silently.
- List hygiene — flagging this because the brief's actual goal is list growth, not just running a contest: a Klaviyo list that only ever receives these two follow-up emails doesn't grow the active marketing list Austin sends to regularly. Confirm whether entrants should also land on (or get added to) the standing "Email List" (the main ongoing subscriber list, confirmed via Klaviyo) — otherwise this campaign fills a list that goes quiet after Oct 5, 2026, which runs against the stated objective.
- Confirmation / auto-reset: Klaviyo's embedded form has a native success-message state, but it doesn't auto-clear and reload on its own. Either accept that the success message stays on screen until the next person refreshes the page, or add a short script to auto-refresh after ~6 seconds. This is a build-complexity call, not a copy call — flagging rather than guessing which way to build it.
- Image: one Street-line lifestyle photo. Confirm the kiosk's physical orientation (portrait stand vs. landscape) before finalizing the crop — an iPad on a booth stand is often portrait.

- Official rules link: the drafted rules currently live as a department file (`jackman-offroad-expo-giveaway-official-rules-2026-09-30-v1.md`) still pending Kris Maya's compliance review. It needs a real public-facing URL (a Shopify page or linked PDF) before this landing page can link to it live — don't publish this page with a dead or placeholder rules link.
- Social links: confirm the live Instagram and Facebook URLs before linking. The standing social strategy doc flagged Facebook still sitting on a `profile.php?id=` URL as of 2026-09-15 — confirm whether `facebook.com/JackmanWheels` has been claimed yet, or link to whichever URL is actually live.

Brand guardrail check

No specific finish or model named for the prize — kept to "Street line" throughout, per the brief. No load rating, certification, or part-number claim. No founder names. No militarized language. Copy checked against the `jackman-brand-guidelines` skill's guardrails and run through `humanizer` — kept direct and a little warm ("takes about ten seconds," "that's worth something" in the companion email) rather than reading like a contest-rules boilerplate page.
